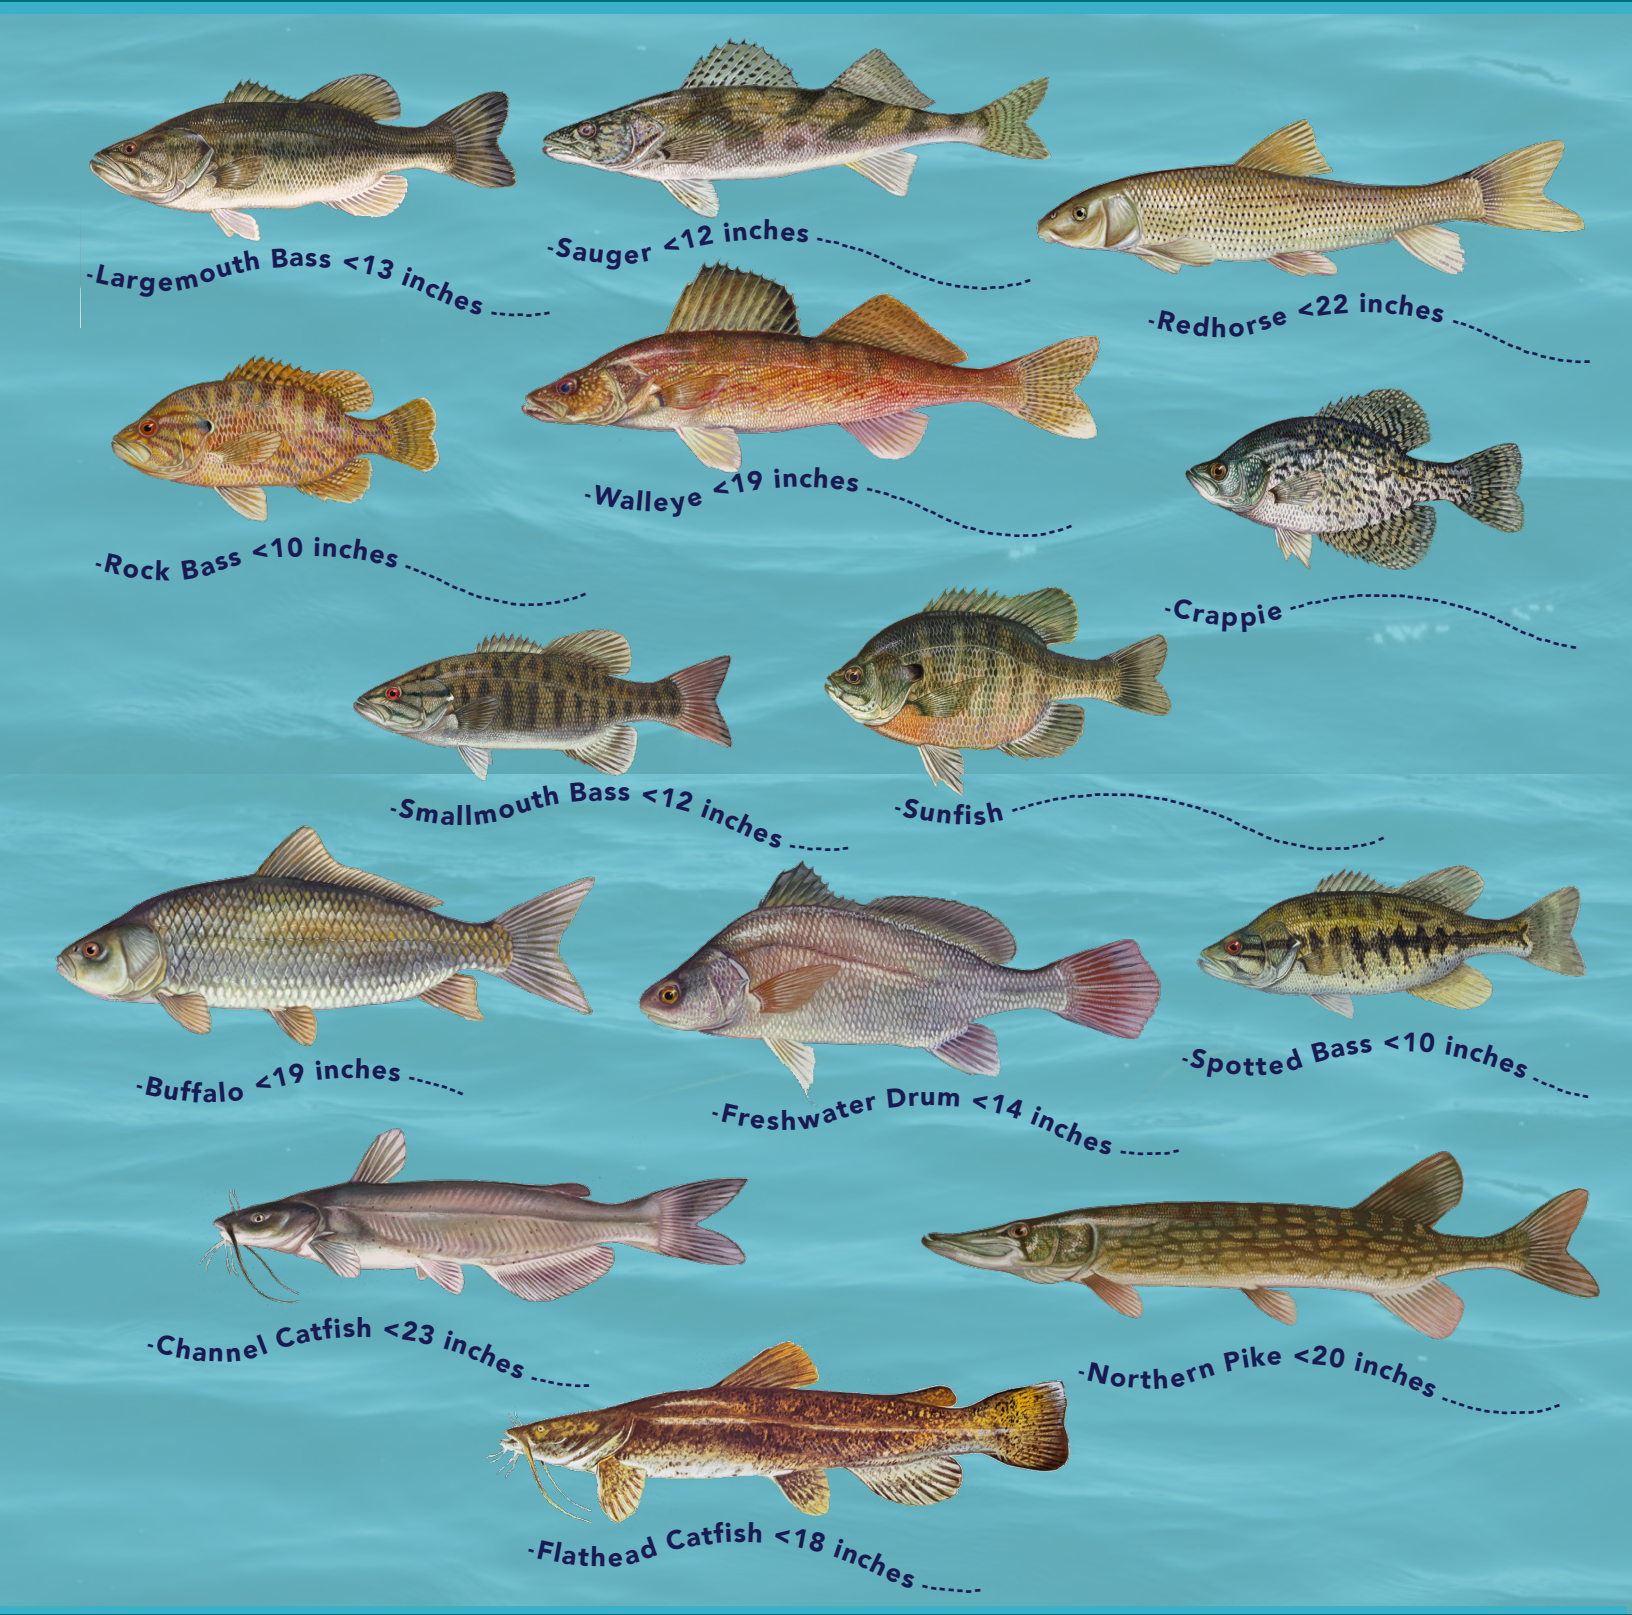
Eating Local Fish in Indiana Waterways

From Indiana waterways, females under 50 and males under 18 can eat these fish species and sizes safely once per week. Males 18 and over and females over 50 can eat them more frequently.



Some waters present more risk when consuming these species and sizes. Please consult the Indiana Fish Consumption Advisory Website for more specific listings:

http://www.in.gov/isdh/23650.htm

Environmental Public Health Division

Indiana State Department of Health