MARTINI LUTHERAN CEMETERY

Located in Section 16, on the south side of Moeller Road, approx. 500 -600 feet east of the Meyer Road intersection. The cemetery was established around 1853, and contains many early German settlers. It is still in use. A new church has been built approximately 2 1/4 miles east of the cemetery, at 333 East Moeller Road, New Haven. The old church has been sold to Indiana District, Inc. of Pentecostal Church of Good of America, Inc. in January 1966. In researching this cemetery, and using several mortuary books, I found that the cemetery was referred to as: Stocks Cemetery, after a former Pastor; St. Martini's; Martine; in Adams Twp.; the cemetery near Adams Station; and Buuck's Cemetery after a former Pastor. When information was taken from the churchbook it will be CB. Some of the ink was so faded and the writing so German the surnames were unreadable.
