

Posts

Photos

Reels

 Nick Russell11h ·

I'm seeing a lot of people posting the "God, Family, Country. In that order." picture from Charlie Kirk's Facebook page. I thought I would post 3 other things from his Facebook page over the last 4 days and a quote attributed to him shortly after a school shooting in Nashville in 2023.

I feel terrible for his young child. Having to grow up not knowing your father is gut wrenching. I'm sure with his dad being such a public figure, he will learn in due time who he was and what he stood for.

Make no mistake, Charlie Kirk was a vile piece of shit. He has made millions off of dividing people in this country and driving people to the lengths we saw on January 6th 2021, on June 14th of this year, and today when he met his own demise.

In my mind, his legacy was continued today, when there was yet another school shooting in Colorado. There has been no bigger advocate for doing nothing about the ongoing gun problem in this country than Charlie Kirk.

To his dying day, his social media profiles are filled with racism, sexism, misogyny, and bigotry. And that's how they'll stay for all eternity. That will be his legacy. One fraught in division, lies, and deception.

I'll leave you with one final quote from Charlie Kirk: "I can't stand the word empathy, actually. I think empathy is a made up new age term. It does a lot of damage."

Well in your honor, and like you did for the hundreds of

Add friend

Message

