

NWI Times - Today's most-clicked post: Portage High School students walked out Thursday to protest federal immigration enforcement, gathering on the football field as administrators cited safety concerns.

