BMV Announces Sellersburg Branch Consolidation

INDIANAPOLIS—Commissioner of the Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles Peter L. Lacy announced today he approved the plan to consolidate the Sellersburg branch into the Clarksville branch. The last day of operation for Sellersburg is Saturday, Feb. 2, 2019.

“In line with Governor Holcomb's fifth pillar of delivering great customer service at great value, we expect this change to provide an improved experience for Hoosiers while ensuring the BMV is using resources in the most efficient manner,” said Commissioner Lacy.

The New Albany and Clarksville branches are located less than six miles from the Sellersburg branch. Residents choosing to use the Clarksville branch will have access to a 24-hour BMV Connect kiosk. BMV Connect is a new concept in customer service which gives Hoosiers the option to visit a BMV branch any time of day to complete routine transactions.
