Comptroller Nieshalla Joins Financial Officers in Support of Israel

STATEHOUSE – Indiana State Comptroller Elise Nieshalla, joining forces with 28 other state financial officers, released a statement today reaffirming commitment to further support Israel as an ally.

“Indiana continues to make public commitments to support Israel through mutually beneficial investments,” said State Comptroller Nieshalla.

“In the absence of national leadership in the White House, I along with fellow financial officers reaffirm our solidarity with the Jewish people. Furthermore, our resolution pushes for the financial and ratings research that states rely upon be based on sound fiscal principles and not allow tactics to be factored in that would isolate Israel from international trade and investment.”

The state financial officers from Alabama, Louisiana, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, Florida, Idaho, Indiana, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah, West Virginia and Kansas signed onto the resolution.
