FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Clark County Clerk's Office Announces Public Access to Election Board Meetings via YouTube

Clark County, IN – July 7, 2025 – The Clark County Clerk's Office is proud to announce that the Clark County Election Board will now be recording all public board meetings and making them available for viewing on YouTube. This initiative is part of an ongoing effort to promote government transparency and increase public engagement in the election process.

Members of the public can now access these recordings by visiting the official Clark County Election Board YouTube channel at: www.youtube.com/@ClarkCountyElectionBoard

Clark County Clerk Ryan Lynch, who also serves as Secretary of the Election Board, emphasized the importance of this step in strengthening public trust and participation:

"It's incredibly important to me personally to promote transparency and support strong election involvement by our community. By recording and sharing these meetings, we're offering an open window into how elections are administered in Clark County—making it easier than ever for voters to stay informed, hold us accountable, and actively participate in our election process."

For more information about upcoming meetings, election dates, and how to get involved, visit www.clarkcountyelections.com.
