CODE OF BY-LAWS
FLOYD COUNTY COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS ADVISORY BOARD
AND
FLOYD COUNTY JUSTICE REINVESTMENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

ARTICLE I: ESTABLISHMENT AND PURPOSE

SECTION 1: ESTABLISHMENT of Floyd County Community Corrections ("FCCC"), and Floyd County Justice Reinvestment Advisory Council ("FC-JRAC").

Indiana Code Title 11, Article 12: COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS, establishes Community Corrections programs in Indiana.

IC 11-12-1 Chapter 1. Locally and Regionally Operated Community Corrections

IC 11-12-1-1 Sec. 1. As used in this article, "community corrections program" means a community based program that provides preventive services, services to offenders, services to persons charged with a crime or an act of delinquency, services to persons diverted from the criminal or delinquency process, services to persons sentenced to imprisonment, or services to victims of crime or delinquency, and is operated under a community corrections plan of a county and funded at least in part by the state subsidy provided in IC 11-12-2.

Indiana Code Title 33, Article 38, Section 4(a) establishes a LOCAL JUSTICE REINVESTMENT ADVISORY COUNCIL for each county in Indiana, effective July 1, 2021.

IC 33-38-9.5-4 Section 4(a) A local justice reinvestment advisory council is established in each county in Indiana.

*The FCCC Advisory Board has voted to serve as the local advisory council which is permitted by I.C. 33-38-9.5-4(d). Meeting agendas will include business related to both community correction advisory board and FC-JRAC.

SECTION 2: PURPOSE.

Floyd County Community Corrections Advisory Board. Pursuant to IC 11-12-1-2, FCCC was established for the purpose of assisting in the coordination of the Community Corrections Program. The FCCC Advisory Board was established on September 4, 1984 by resolution of the Floyd County Board of Commissioners.

IC 11-12-1-2 Sec. 2. ... The county, in consultation with the advisory board, shall coordinate or operate community corrections programs for any of the following:

- (1) The prevention of crime or delinquency.
- (2) Persons sentenced to imprisonment in a county or local penal facility other than a state owned or operated facility.
- (3) Committed offenders.
- (4) Persons ordered to participate in community corrections programs as a condition of probation.

Floyd County Judicial Reinvestment Advisory Council (FC-JRAC). Pursuant to IC 33-38-9.5-5, the FC-JRAC is established effective July 1, 2021 and should promote:

- IC 33-38-9.5-5 Sec. 5. A local advisory council shall promote:
- (1) The use of evidence based practices; and
 - (2) The best practices of community based alternatives and recidivism reduction programs, including:
 - a. Probation services;
 - b. Problem solving courts;
 - c. Mental health and addiction treatment and recovery services;
 - d. Pretrial services
 - e. Community corrections
 - f. Evidence based recidivism reduction programs for currently incarcerated persons;
 - g. Other rehabilitation alternatives; and
 - h. The incorporation of evidence based decision making into decisions concerning jail overcrowding.

ARTICLE II: POWERS AND DUTIES OF FCCC

Section 1: Statutory Powers and Duties of Community Corrections Advisory Boards. Indiana statute outlines various powers and duties for Community Corrections advisory boards. (See 11-12-2-3.) The FCCC Advisory Board will operate in compliance with all Indiana laws and Indiana Department of Corrections regulations.

Section 2: Financial Aid and Funding: The Board shall formulate the Community Corrections Plan and the Grant Application. The Board shall approve the grant application, budget and all required documentation for the grant application.

The FCCC Advisory Board must approve and sign off on any changes to the Community Corrections Plan or budget in the executed contract. The review and approval or denial must be documented in the Advisory Board meeting minutes. Once approved, the Advisory Board Chairperson will sign off on any required forms by the IDOC Community Corrections Grant Funded Entities Procedural Bulletins that are needed for consideration.

The Floyd County Commissioners and Floyd County Council shall provide necessary assistance and appropriations to the FCCC Advisory Board. Appropriations required under this subsection are limited to amounts received from the following sources:

- 1.) Department grants
- 2.) User fees
- 3.) Other funds as contained within an approved plan

Additional funds may be appropriated as determined by Floyd County Commissioners and Floyd County Council.

Section 3: Employees: Employees of FCCC are county employees. The policy and procedures established under Community Corrections may not be inconsistent with those established for other county employees.

Section 4: Observe: The Board shall observe, oversee and coordinate Community Correction Programs in Floyd County.

Section 5: Annual Report: The Board shall make an annual report to the Floyd County Commissioners to include an evaluation of the effectiveness of programs and recommendations for improvement, modification, or discontinuance of these programs.

Section 6: Compliance: The Board shall ensure that programs comply with the standards of the Indiana Department of Correction. The Board shall ensure that compliance of statute, rules, procedure bulletins, and the executed contract are in compliance for the entities awarded under the IDOC grant application, including contracted agencies listed in the Community Corrections Plan.

Section 7: Collaboration: The Board shall coordinate county collaboration. This includes formulating and coordinating a plan for collaboration with the probation department, the community corrections program, and any other local criminal justice agency that receives funding from the department for the provision of community supervision for adult participants. The Board is to encourage county collaboration to include courts, prosecuting attorneys, public defenders, and sheriffs when addressing the needs of the local criminal justice population.

Section 8: Contracts: The Board shall recommend to the Floyd County Commissioners for approval or disapproval of contracts with agencies that participate in FCCC, and before recommending approval, the Board must determine that the program is capable of meeting the standards adopted by the Indiana Department of Correction, and or the Office of Court Services if it is a Problem-Solving Court Program. The Board shall formulate and define the priorities of the eligible grant entities and Community Corrections Plan to be submitted in the grant application.

The Board shall recommend approval or disapproval of the contracted agencies, local government or nongovernmental agencies, that desire to participate in the community corrections plan.

Section 9: Appointment of Director: Pursuant to I.C. 11-12-2-3.5, the Board shall appoint a Director of the FCCC subject to the approval of the Floyd County Commissioners. The Director may be removed for cause by a majority of the vote of the FCCC Board subject to the approval of the Floyd County Commissioners.

ARTICLE III: POWERS AND DUTIES OF FC-JRAC

Section 1: Statutory Powers and Duties of Floyd County Judicial Reinvestment Advisory Council.

Indiana statute outlines various powers and duties for local justice reinvestment advisory boards. The FC-JRAC will operate in compliance with all Indiana laws. IC 33-38-9.5-6 states that the advisory council shall do as follows:
