

FLOYD COUNTY RESOLUTION 1983- 8

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of the County of Floyd has determined that public convenience and safety requires the replacement of Bridge No. 62, Floyd County, Indiana; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of the County of Floyd has determined that sufficient local funds do not exist to permit the present reconstruction of said structure; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of the County of Floyd is desirous of submitting an application to the Department of Commerce of the State of Indiana, under the Emergency Jobs Bill, for funds sufficient to permit said replacement, and said Board is further desirous of retaining the services of S. K. Wilson and Associates for the purpose of formulating and submitting the necessary applications for such funds.

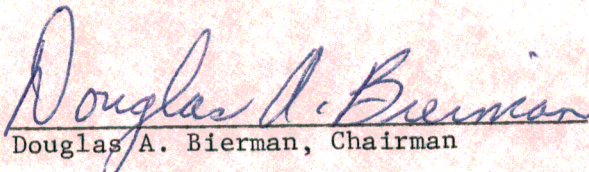

NOW THEREFORE:

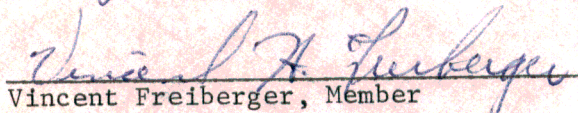

BE IT RESOLVED, that S. K. Wilson and Associates be, and hereby is, authorized to submit to the Department of Commerce of the State of Indiana an application for funds, under the Emergency Jobs Bill, or other appropriate legislation, so as to enable the present reconstruction of Bridge No. 62, Floyd County, Indiana.

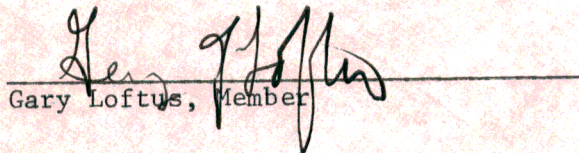

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that S. K. Wilson and Associates be, and hereby is, authorized to undertake such acts as may be reasonably necessary, proper and attendant to the express authority herein granted.

DATED this 18 day of May, 1983.
