

FLOYD COUNTY RESOLUTION 1986- 4

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of the County of Floyd is preparing to replace Bridge No. 26 on the Georgetown-Greenville Road, the same crossing Richland Creek; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of the County of Floyd has contacted the various property owners whose land will be acquired for the purpose of providing right of way for the reconstruction of referenced bridge; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of the County of Floyd has acquired all of the real estate necessary for the construction of said bridge, with the exception of the real estate to be acquired from H. Earl Lee and Dianna Lee, husband and wife, and the real estate to be acquired from Aaron Watts and Doris R. Watts, husband and wife; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of the County of Floyd are unable to negotiate for the purchase of the Watts real estate or the Lee real estate and deems it necessary that the real estate to be acquired from said individuals be condemned.

NOW THEREFORE:

BE IT RESOLVED, that condemnation proceedings be initiated by the Floyd County Attorney for the purpose of acquiring from Aaron Watts and Doris R. Watts, husband and wife, and H. Earl Lee and Dianna Lee, husband and wife, the real estate necessary for the replacement of Bridge No. 26 on the Georgetown-Greenville Road, the same crossing Richland Creek.

DATED this 15th day of November, 1986.
