

A RESOLUTION REGARDING SEVERE WEATHER PREPAREDNESS WEEK

WHEREAS Floyd County is located within a region commonly known as the nation's "Tornado Belt" - with a history of devastating tornados and severe weather; and

WHEREAS the risk of tornados and severe thunderstorms in Floyd County and throughout the region is highest in the months of March through June; and

WHEREAS the State of Indiana is planning a state-wide tornado warning exercise for March 8, 2006 for the purpose of testing tornado and severe weather communication systems, equipment and procedures; and

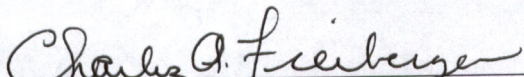

WHEREAS the Floyd County Emergency Management Agency wants to emphasize tornado and severe weather safety procedures all during the week of March 5 through March 11, 2006

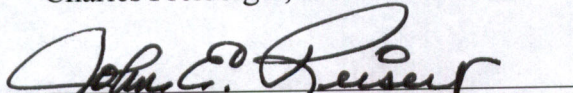

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED AS FOLLOWS:

The Board of Commissioners of Floyd County Indiana declares the week of March 5, through March 11, 2006 to be "Severe Weather Preparedness Week" and the Board urges all citizens to become aware of tornado and severe weather danger signs and to learn how to safeguard their lives and the lives to their families, friends and the citizenry in the event of severe weather in our area.

RESOLVED THIS 7th DAY OF March, 2006.

BOARD OF FLOYD COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Charles Freiberger, President

John Reiser, County Commissioner

Steve Bush, County Commissioner

ATTEST:

Teresa A. Plais
Floyd County Auditor