- Never place yourself in a dangerous situation, such as trying to get trash that is floating in the river.
- Watch for traffic when working in pull-over areas along the side of the road.
- Wear old comfortable clothing and closed toed shoes.
- Wear gloves to protect your hands from sharp objects like glass and metal.
- Avoid areas that are overgrown with shrubs.
- Trash bags are provided.

The History of River Sweep

River Sweep, is sponsored by the Ohio River Valley Sanitation Commission (ORSANCO) and Ohio River Education (Fore), is an annual river bank cleanup for the Ohio River and its tributaries. Throughout the years, this nationally recognized event has grown into one of the largest cleanup efforts of its kind; encompassing 3,000 miles of shoreline from Pittsburgh, PA to Cairo, IL. Improved water quality has increased recreational use of the Ohio River and its tributaries. This increase in recreation produces more litter on the river banks, making a yearly cleanup vital. River Sweep also increases public awareness of water quality and promotes stewardship of the Ohio River and its tributaries.
