

RESOLUTION

2009-36

Resolution of the Board of County Commissioners of Martin County, Indiana:

WHEREAS, the City of Loogootee is dealing with a collapsed building located at the intersection of Wood Street and JFK Avenue (Forty-four (44) feet of even width off the West side of Lot 24, Cray's Addition to the Town, now City of Loogootee, Indiana); and

WHEREAS, the City of Loogootee has been awarded a grant to clean up said collapsed building with a condition that the City of Loogootee shall obtain ownership of said real estate free and clear of all liens and encumbrances; and

WHEREAS, the present owner of said tract of real estate is in arrears in property taxes due to Martin County, Indiana in the amount of $15,165.15 plus penalty and interest as of July 24, 2009; and

WHEREAS, the present owner of said property is interested in deeding the property over to the City of Loogootee, Indiana if the property owner can obtain relief from the accumulated property taxes pending against said tract of property, and

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners desires to assist the City of Loogootee in obtaining legal title to said tract of real estate in order to clean up said collapsed building in the interest of health and safety of all residents and visitors to the City of Loogootee and Martin County,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of Martin County, Indiana, that all the outstanding property taxes now levied against real property described as Forty-four (44) feet of even width off the West side of Lot 24, Cray's Addition to the Town, now City of Loogootee, Indiana shall be waived now and forever in order to facilitate the transfer of said tract of real estate to the City of Loogootee, Indiana, and

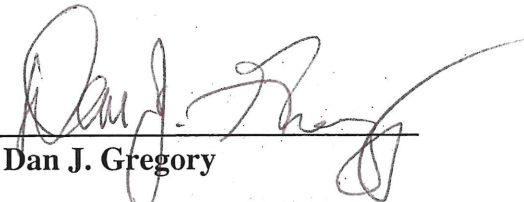

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this waiver of property taxes shall only be effective to facilitate the transfer of said tract of real estate to the City of Loogootee, Indiana.

Adopted this 18th day of August, 2009.
