

PROCLAMATION/RESOLUTION 2012-19

Martin County Commissioners Martin County, Indiana

WHEREAS, nutritious food is essential to human life and healthy development and should be available to all people; and

WHEREAS, much food that would otherwise be wasted is rescued by food banks and provided to agencies that serve people in need; and

WHEREAS, on November 18, 1982, Hoosier Hills Food Bank was founded to collect, store, and distribute food to agencies serving the hungry; and

WHEREAS, Hoosier Hills Food Bank provides food to 96 partner agencies, including those in Martin County; and

WHEREAS, In 2011 Hoosier Hills Food Bank distributed 76,288 pounds of food in Martin County; and

WHEREAS, since 1982, Hoosier Hills Food Bank has distributed over 35 million pounds of food in south central Indiana; and

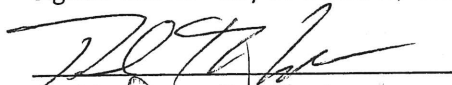

WHEREAS, Hoosier Hills Food Bank is now observing its 30th anniversary of helping the hungry in our community.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Commissioners of Martin County, Indiana, do hereby proclaim November 18, 2012, as

Hoosier Hills Food Bank Day

In Martin County, Indiana, and encourage everyone to support the efforts of this very important agency.

Signed this 16th day of October, 2012.

Paul R. George, President

John Wininger

Dan J. Gregory, Vice President

Attest: Nancy J. Steiner, Auditor