

CHAPTER 225
RESILIENCY COMMISSION

225-1. Creation

There is hereby established the Monroe County Resiliency Commission pursuant to Monroe County's Home Rule Authority (IC 36-1-3).

225-2. Membership and Terms

The Commission shall have up to nine (9) members who shall serve for terms of two years in accordance with Monroe County Code 216, beginning on February 1st of their year of appointment and ending January 31st. Members shall be appointed as follows:

- (1) One County Commissioner, chosen by the Board of Commissioners.
- (2) One County Council person, chosen by the County Council.
- (3) Two citizen members chosen by the County Board of Commissioners.
- (4) One citizen member chosen by the County Council.
- (5) One employee from the Monroe County Planning Department as determined by the Monroe County Plan Commission.
- (6) The Monroe County Stormwater Program Manager, or their designee.
- (7) The Monroe County Fleet and Building Manager, or their designee.
- (8) The director of the Monroe County Emergency Management department, or their designee.

The Commission shall be subject to the Uniform Provision for Boards and Commission as found in Chapter 216 of the Monroe County Code. Members may be removed by the authority that appointed them for any reason. The secretary of the Commission shall notify the appointing authority of any member that misses more than two (2) consecutive meetings.

225-3. Duties

(A) The Commission shall serve in a support and advisory role to assist the government of Monroe County, its departments, in improving their environmental sustainability and resilience in both operation and capital projects.

(B) The Commission may, subject to the specific authorization of the Monroe County Board of Commissioners, provide oversight to Monroe County environmental protection or sustainability programs funded by grants or other non-governmental revenue sources.

(C) The Commission may seek approval from the Monroe County Board of Commissioners to undertake other duties and may proceed to perform such duties when specifically directed to do so by the Board of Commissioners.
