What if you are not satisfied with this decision and you want to file an appeal?

Who may file an appeal?

The decision described in the accompanying Notice of Decision may be administratively appealed. Filing an appeal is formally known as filing a "Petition for Administrative Review" to request an "administrative hearing."

If you object to this decision issued by the Indiana Department of Environmental Management (IDEM) and are: 1) the person to whom the decision was directed, 2) a party specified by law as being eligible to appeal, or 3) aggrieved or adversely affected by the decision, you are entitled to file an appeal. (An aggrieved or adversely affected person is one who would be considered by the court to be negatively impacted by the decision. If you file an appeal because you feel that you are aggrieved, it will be up to you to demonstrate in your appeal how you are directly impacted in a negative way by the decision).

The Office of Administrative Law Proceedings (OALP) is a separate state agency independent of IDEM. OALP was formed in 2019 by H.E.A. 1223 to provide Indiana with a central and independent hearings process for many types of disputes.

What is required of persons filing an appeal?

Filing an appeal is a legal proceeding, so it is suggested that you consult with an attorney. Your request for an appeal must include your name and address and identify your interest in the decision (Or, if you are representing someone else, his or her name and address and their interest in the decision). In addition, please include a photocopy of the accompanying Notice of Decision or list the permit number and name of the applicant, or responsible party, in your letter.

Before a hearing is granted, you must identify the reason for the appeal request and the issues proposed for consideration at the hearing. You also must identify the permit terms and conditions that, in your judgment, would appropriately satisfy the requirements of law with respect to the IDEM decision being appealed. That is, you must suggest an alternative to the language in the permit (or other order, or decision) being appealed, and your suggested changes must be consistent with all applicable laws (See Indiana Code 13-15-6-2) and rules (See Title 315 of the Indiana Administrative Code, or 315 IAC).

The effective date of this agency action is stated on the accompanying Notice of Decision (or other IDEM decision notice). If you file a "Petition for Administrative Review" (appeal), you may wish to specifically request that the action be "stayed" (temporarily halted) because most appeals do not allow for an automatic "stay." If, after an evidentiary hearing, a "stay" is granted, the IDEM-approved action may be halted altogether, or only allowed to continue in part, until a final decision has been made regarding the appeal. However, if the action is not "stayed" the IDEM-approved activity will be allowed to continue during the appeal process.

(See reverse side)

Where can you file an appeal?

If you wish to file an appeal, you must do so in writing. Do not send the original copy of your appeal request to IDEM. Instead, send or deliver your appeal to:

Office of Administrative Law Proceedings
100 N. Senate Avenue
Indiana Government Center North
Suite N802
Indianapolis, IN 46204

If you file an appeal, also please send a copy of your appeal letter to the IDEM contact person identified in the Notice of Decision, and to the applicant (person receiving an IDEM permit, or other approval).

Your appeal (petition for administrative review) must be received by the Office of Administrative Law Proceedings (OALP) in a timely manner. Different types of permit approvals have different deadlines for filing an appeal. The accompanying Notice of Decision (NOD) explains how to determine the due date for filing an appeal for this particular permit decision. To ensure that you meet this filing requirement, your appeal request must be:

- 1) Delivered in person to the Office of Administrative Law Proceedings (OALP) by the close-of-business on the due date. (If the due date falls on a day when the OALP is closed for the weekend or for a state holiday, then your petition will be accepted on the next business day on which OALP is open) or
- 2) Given to a private carrier who will deliver it to the OALP on your behalf, (and from whom you must obtain a receipt dated on or before the due date)
- 3) For those appeal requests sent by U.S. Mail, your letter must be postmarked by no later than midnight of the due date.

What are the costs associated with filing an appeal?

The OEA does not charge a fee for filing documents for an administrative review or for the use of its hearing facilities. Another cost that could be associated with your appeal would be for attorney's fees. Although you have the option to act as your own attorney, the administrative review and associated hearing are complex legal proceedings; therefore, you should consider whether your interests would be better represented by an experienced attorney.
