MINIMUM PARENTING GUIDELINES

It is the goal of the Courts to encourage as much flexibility as possible regarding the exercise of parenting time. These guidelines are intended to advise parents of the minimum parenting time towhich the non-custodial parent is entitled in most cases. The parents may agree to a schedule different from theseguidelines when it is in the best interests of the children and meets the needs of both parents. Absent an agreement, however, the following parenting time shall be ordered.

1. The non-custodial parent shall have the following parenting time with the child or children of the parties except where the children are less than one (1) year old or where geographic distances make compliance with these guidelines prohibitive:

throughout that semester and children are in school on time on every Monday morning.

[b] Provided there exists no conflict with school activities, one evening per week from 6:00 P.M.
until 8:00 P.M., the evening to be agreed upon by the parties. If the parties cannot agree, the evening shall be Wednesday;

APPENDIX J

MINIMUM PARENTING GUIDELINES

It is the goal of the Courts to encourage as much flexibility as possible regarding the exercise of parenting time. These guidelines are intended to advise parents of the minimum parenting time to which the non-custodial parent is entitled in most cases. The parents may agree to a schedule different from these guidelines when it is in the best interests of the children and meets the needs of both parents. Absent an agreement, however, the following parenting time shall be ordered.

1. The non-custodial parent shall have the following parenting time with the child or children of the parties except where the children are less than one (1) year old or where geographic distances make compliance with these guidelines prohibitive:

[a] On alternating weekends from 6:00 P.M. on Friday until 6:00 P.M. on Sunday, or if the child(ren) is regularly attending school then on alternating weekends from 6:00 P.M. on Friday until the beginning of the school day on Monday, the non-custodial parent to advise the custodial parent of the choice by August 15 before the school fall semester and by December 15 before the spring semester.

If the non-custodial parent chooses parenting time through Monday morning, he/she shall have that responsibility throughout that semester and shall make certain that the children are in school on time on every Monday morning.

[b]Provided there exists no conflict with school activities, one evening per week from 6:00 P.M. until 8:00 P.M., the evening to be agreed upon by the parties. If the parties cannot agree, the evening shall be Wednesday;

[c]In years ending with an odd number:

[1] The evening before each child's birthday from 6:00 P.M. until 9:00 P.M.;

[2] Memorial Day weekend from 6:00 P.M. on Friday until 6:00 P.M. on Monday;

[3] Independence Day from 6:00 P.M. on July 3 until 6:00 P.M. On July 5;

[4] Thanksgiving holiday from 6:00 P.M. on Wednesday until 6:00 P.M. on Sunday;

[5]From 6:00 P.M. on December 20 until 11:00 P.M. on Christmas Eve; and

[6]Martin Luther King holiday from 6:00 P.M. on the day before until 6:00 P.M. on the holiday.

[d]In years ending with an even number:

[1]On each child's birthday for the entire day until 8:00 P.M. unless a school day, then in such event from the end of school until 8:00 P.M. (The non-custodial parent is further entitled to simultaneous parenting time with the child's siblings on such day);

[2] Easter weekend from 6:00 P.M. on Friday until 6:00 P.M. on Sunday;

[3] Labor Day weekend from 6:00 P.M. on Friday until 6:00 P.M. on Monday;

[4]During Christmas holidays from 11:00 P.M. on Christmas Eve until 6:00 P.M. on January 1:

[5]From 6:00 P.M. on the evening before the school spring break until 7:00 P.M. on the last day of the school spring break.

[e]On the non-custodial parent's Birthday and Mother's Day or Father's Day, as applicable, from 10:00 A.M. until 6:00 P.M.

Similarly, the custodial parent shall have parenting time on the custodial parent's Birthday and Mother's Day or Father's Day, as applicable, when such day conflicts with these guidelines.

[f]In the summertime for school age children, for two non-consecutive three (3) week periods during the summer months, the periods to be agreed upon by the parties on or before May 15th of each year. However, if the summer parenting time is less than twelve (12) weeks, the vacation time shall be split equally between the parties.

There shall be no weekend parenting time during the exercise of these periods and the custodial parent shall be entitled to similar extended periods without interruption.

[g]In the summertime for pre-school age children, for two (2) weeks in the month of June and for two (2) weeks in the month of July, the periods to be agreed upon by the parties on or before May 15th of each year.

[h]Such other parenting time as may be agreed upon between the parties.

Missed Weekend Parenting Time as the Result of Holiday or Other Superseding Time.

- 1. Whenever the child(ren) is with one of his or her parents for two (2) consecutive weekends, then notwithstanding any other provisions contained within these Guidelines, the parent that did not have physical custody of the child(ren) for these two (2) weekends, shall have the child for the following weekend and the parties shall then re-establish alternate weekend parenting time. The only exception to this provision of the reconfiguration of "alternate weekend parenting time" shall be during those times that either parent is exercising the extended summer parenting time as outlined herein. This provision is not intended to apply when the parents agree to "trade" weekends, unless this is the desire of the parties.
- 2. Where geographical distances make compliance with these guidelines prohibitive, the non-custodial parent shall have the following parenting time with the child or children of the parties:
 - [a]One (1) weekend per month beginning at 6:00 P.M. on Friday until 6:00 P.M. on Sunday, the parties to agree on the weekend;
- [b]Six (6) consecutive weeks of summer parenting time, the weeks to be agreed upon by the parties on or before May 15th of each year;
- [c]One (1) week at spring break beginning at 6:00 P.M. on the Friday the school week endsbefore spring break until 6:00 P.M. on the Sunday before school resumes;
 - [d]During odd numbered years, for the Thanksgiving holiday from 6:00 P.M. on Wednesday until 6:00 P.M. on Sunday;
 - [e]During the Christmas holiday, from 6:00 P.M. on December 25 until 6:00 P.M. on January 1;
 - [f]Such other parenting time as may be agreed upon by the parties.
- 3.Where a child is less than one (1) year old, parenting time shall be each week on Saturdays or Sundays, the parties to agree on the day, from 10:00 A.M. until 6:00 P.M. If the child is less than three (3) months old, such period shall be from 2:00 P.M. until 6:00 P.M.
 - 4. The non-custodial parent shall advise the custodial parent forty-eight (48) hours in advance if he or she does not intend to exercise any period of parenting time.

- 5.Unless prior arrangements are made, the non-custodial parent shall pick up the children at the times specified and return the children at the times specified, and the custodial parent shall have the children ready at the scheduled pick-up time and shall be present at the home to receive the children at the scheduled return time.
 - 6. The custodial parent shall send with the children sufficient clothing and outer wear appropriate for the season to last the period of parenting time.
- 7.Each parent shall supply the other with his or her current address and telephone number and shall allow liberal but reasonable telephone and mail privileges with the children.

8.The custodial parent shall inform the non-custodial parent of the children]'s school and/or social functions permitting parental participation within twenty-four (24) hours of notification to the custodial parent of such function, and the non-custodial parent shall be permitted to attend such functions, regardless of when the function occurs.

The opportunity to attend school functions should not be denied the children because the custodial parent is not able to attend. In such instances the children shall be allowed to attend with their non-custodial parent.

9. Each parent shall have rights of access to all providers of services to the children] as well as all medical reports, school reports, and the like, issued by any provider of services, all without the need of consent from either party. The custodial parent, nonetheless, shall take the necessary action with school authorities to list the non-custodial parent as a parent of the children], to authorize the school to release to the non-custodial parent any and all information concerning the children], and to otherwise insure that the non-custodial parent receives copies of all grade reports and any notices regarding the children], including scheduled meetings concerning the children].

10. The custodial parent shall promptly inform the non-custodial parent of any illness of the children which shall require medical attention.

11.Each parent shall have the right of first refusal for child care or babysitting needs of the other parent whenever either parent has a need for child care or babysitting for a duration of four (4) hours or more. A good faith attempt should be made to inquire of the other parent with as much advanced notice as possible. The other parent is under no obligation to provide the child care or babysitting and if he or she elects to provide the care it shall be a no cost.

12. The child support obligation of the non-custodial parent shall abate by 50% during any period of parenting time of six (6) consecutive days or longer provided the non-custodial parent is current in the court-ordered support obligation (including ordered arrearage payments, if any).

If, as parents, you agree that it is in the best interests of your children to adopt a schedule different from these guidelines, such an agreement should be in writing and approved and ordered by the Court. Without such approval and order, the Court will not enforce such an agreement should a denial of parenting time occur. Under such circumstances, the Court will enforce guideline parenting time.
