In the Matter of Appointments to the Coalition for Court Access

Supreme Court Case No. 25S-MS-151

Order Appointing and Reappointing Members to the Coalition for Court Access

The Coalition for Court Access acts as a legal aid organization that develops and implements a statewide plan to improve the availability and quality of access to civil legal services for people of limited means. The Supreme Court appoints members to the Coalition from areas of practice and the bar under Indiana Administrative Rule 4(C)(6)(a). Members serve three-year terms that begin on July 1 of the year of appointment, with a maximum of two terms. Ind. Administrative Rule 4(C).

On June 30, 2025, the terms of service will expire for the Honorable Charles K. Todd, Jr., Wayne Superior Court, and Jean Blanton, Americas Magnera Corporation. The Court thanks Judge Todd and Ms. Blanton for their dedication and service.

To replace Judge Todd, the Court appoints the Honorable Catherine Stafford of the Monroe County Circuit Court to serve the Coalition as a member of the trial court. To replace Jean Blanton, the Court appoints Amy Dudas to serve the Coalition as a member of a pro bono organization. Their terms will begin on July 1, 2025, and end on June 30, 2028.

Additionally, the Court reappoints Jon Laramore, Indiana Legal Services, Inc., Adam Mueller, Indiana Justice Project, and Kerry Hyatt Bennett, Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence, to the Coalition as members of a state-wide civil legal assistance organization. Each shall serve terms that end on June 30, 2028.
