A. Provisional Relief Hearing. Before a date and time is set for hearing on a Motion for Provisional Orders, the parties or their counsel shall attempt to resolve all provisional matters by way of Agreed Entry. At the beginning of each provisional order hearing, the parties will be asked if a meeting to attempt to resolve the matter has occurred. If not, the hearing will be vacated and a new hearing date shall be set once the parties have complied with this rule.

On or before the date the Motion for Provisional Orders is set for hearing each party, if applicable, shall file with the court the Child Support Obligation Worksheet and Parenting Time Credit Worksheet (and Post-Secondary Education Worksheet if necessary) which are found at: <https://www.in.gov/courts/services/child-support-calculator/>. B. Final Hearing. The court has made available to parties a Statement of Assets and Liabilities as set forth at Appendix 1. Court time for a final contested hearing on a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage will not be scheduled until a party has fully completed and filed a Statement of Assets and Liabilities. Parties may submit an affidavit confirming the Party has provided a Statement of Assets and Liabilities to the opposing Party in order to comply with this rule.

C. Custody Evaluations. Unless waived by the Court, no case involving the issue of contested child custody will be set for final hearing until there is filed with the Court a custodial evaluation prepared by an expert approved by the Court. Upon request, the Court will allocate costs subject to review at final hearing. The written report of the expert shall be deemed admitted into evidence subject to cross-examination. However, no custody evaluation may be conducted, ordered by the Court, or requested by any party unless and until cooperative approaches, such as mediation, have been exhausted.

The parties shall attend the same program. In the event the parties cannot agree, the Petitioner shall determine which course the parties complete. Parties shall present their certificate of completion to the court on or before the date of final hearing.
- G. Mediation. It is the policy of Whitley County courts to require mediation in juvenile paternity and dissolution matters before setting the matter for final hearing, absent good cause shown. Once a case is referred to mediation, it shall not be set for contested final hearing until the court receives a written report from the mediator.
- H. Post-Dissolution/Post-Adjudication. All post-dissolution petitions or counter-petitions, or juvenile paternity actions which seek a modification of child custody or an alteration of parenting time shall involve a child custody evaluation and/or shall be immediately referred to mediation.
- I. Modest Means Program. Whitley County Courts utilize a funding program to help those of modest means pay for mediation in dissolution and juvenile paternity matters. Parties who wish to participate in the program should inquire as to their eligibility, which is based, in part, on a sliding scale of income.
