

DAVID H. MILLS

Governor Mitch Daniels appointed David Mills as Director of the Department of Financial Institutions on September 8, 2009. Mills retired after thirty-seven years of corporate banking in December, 2007 from National City Bank Indiana as Senior Vice President and Deputy Chief Credit Officer. He served as Director of Programs for the Indiana Office of Faith-Based and Community Initiatives immediately prior to his appointment. Mills received his undergraduate degree from the Indiana University School of Business and is a graduate of the Herbert V. Prochnow Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin. He has served on numerous community and civic boards and was named a Sagamore of the Wabash in 1996. He resides in Zionsville.
