5. Fiscal Report: Michael White reported no change since the September 18, 2023, meeting. He explained HAZMAT Connect and reported that the yearly bill is currently $99,000.

Mr. White explained where the LEPC monies come from to answer this question posed by Mr. Sims. The monies come from fees and a flat rate of $2500 is given to each county, plus a percentage of the monies goes to the counties that are complying.

Mr. White explained that the fund labeled as "Legal Fund" isn't earmarked for legal issues but instead is a general fund which can be used for other purposes. Hillary Egan commented that care should be given to ensure that the fund is used for its intended purpose.

INDIANA EMERGENCY RESPONSE COMMISSION

NOTE: Mr. French joined the meeting at minute 15:56 of the meeting by electronic means (MS Teams) and was present for the meeting and votes following this time. A roll call was then conducted after this for each vote in accordance with and pursuant to the requirements of Indiana Code § 5-14-1.5-3.6.

6. Old Business:

Due Dates for Submission of Compliance Reports:

A vote was taken and approved to change the due dates for some of the LEPC reports in Tier II. Mr. Jones mentioned the new due dates for the LEPC Reports as listed below.

Roster Report – April 30th
By-laws – April 30th
Fiscal Report – October 31st

The Legal Notice and the Exercise Proposal will stay the same. The Final Exercise Report will still be due thirty days after the Exercise has taken place.

Legal Notice – January 31st
Exercise Proposal – May 1st

Funding Allocation Request from Lake County:

Lake County requested approval to use a portion of the counties Distribution funds to purchase a piece of HAZMAT equipment. Mr. Jones stated that Lake County doesn't need to request approval for this equipment purchase as it is in one of the categories that is allocated as use for the distribution monies. Mr. White added that the equipment needs to be available county wide. Mr. Jones requested that this be added to the Meeting Minutes.

7. New Business:

Discussion on an All-Day IERC Meeting:

An All-Day Meeting was discussed to be able to demonstrate Tier II to the IERC, and to introduce other relevant topics to the IERC Board Members, for the purpose of general knowledge about the role of IERC Board Members.

The proposed day was August 12th. Mr. Palin and Mr. Sims requested the date happen earlier in the year. May 13th was discussed as being a better day for the All-Day meeting.

Mr. Jones asked the Board Members to bring meeting topics for the All-Day meeting to be voted on at the next IERC meeting.

A change of venue was suggested for this meeting. Ms. Egan stated that the meeting needs to be wheelchair accessible and that it complies with Open Door Policy Indiana Code § 5-14-1.5-1.
