

STATE OF INDIANA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
INDIANAPOLIS

PROCLAMATION

Executive Order

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME, GREETINGS:

- WHEREAS, just last winter, Indianapolis and much of central Indiana received over a foot of snow during a winter storm on Valentine's Day 2010; and
- WHEREAS, in January 2009, a historic ice storm impacted far southern Indiana, knocking out power to thousands of people for several days; and
- WHEREAS, each winter, Indiana typically experiences several major snowstorms, moderate to major ice storms, moderate to major floods, moderate to major wind storms, and several cold snaps which threaten lives and disrupt the economy; and
- WHEREAS, Indiana has experienced winter storms of such magnitude that federal assistance was required in 2009, 2008, 2007, 2006, 2005, 2003, 2000, 1999, 1998, 1995-1996, 1991 and 1978; and
- WHEREAS, local officials and emergency personnel work to clear the roads and restore any disrupted services by storms, but sometimes this can take hours, and in some cases, days; and
- WHEREAS, all Hoosiers are potentially at risk during winter, whether from accidents related to snow and ice, damage from floods, wind storms, or tornadoes, or exposure to cold or extended loss of power from an ice storm;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr., Governor of the State of Indiana, do hereby proclaim November 14-20, 2010 as in the State of Indiana, and invite all citizens to duly note this occasion.

WINTER WEATHER PREPAREDNESS WEEK

In Testimony Whereof, I hereto set my hand and cause to be affixed the Great Seal of State. Done at the City of Indianapolis, this 10th day of November in the year of our Lord 2010 and of the Independence of the United States 234.

BY THE GOVERNOR:

M E Daniels, Jr.
