

IN APPRECIATION OF EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AGENCIES

As we embark on EMA Appreciation Week, I am filled with gratitude and admiration for the incredible work every one of you does to ensure the safety and resilience of our communities. From coordinating emergency responses to implementing preparedness measures, your dedication and expertise are the backbone of our state's emergency management efforts.

EMA Appreciation Week provides us with a valuable opportunity to shine a spotlight on the vital role that emergency management professionals play in safeguarding our communities. Your tireless efforts often go unnoticed, but they are crucial in times of crisis. Whether responding to natural disasters, managing public health emergencies, or coordinating multi-agency responses, your commitment to serving and protecting our residents is commendable.

At the state level, we recognize the immense importance of your work and are deeply grateful for your unwavering dedication. As we celebrate EMA Appreciation Week, let us take a moment to honor and appreciate the sacrifices you make and the challenges you overcome daily in the name of public safety.

Thank you for your continued service and dedication to the safety and well-being of our communities.

Sincerely,

Mary Moran
Emergency Management & Preparedness Director
