

Indiana Properties Recently Listed in the National and State Registers

Last updated May, 2014

The following are Indiana properties that were recently listed in the National Register of Historic Places and the Indiana Register of Historic Sites and Structures. For a complete list of Indiana properties listed in the National and State Registers, please visit our online database, State Historic Architecture and Archaeological Research Database (SHAARD), at <https://secure.in.gov/apps/dnr/shaard/welcome.html>.

To obtain more information on a specific listed property, search the National Register portion of the database by entering the county and at least a portion of the name or by entering the full "NR" number of the property ("NR-" followed by the 4-digit number) in the "Survey Number" field.

To learn more about SHAARD and how to access it, visit our website <http://www.in.gov/dnr/historic/4505.htm>.
