

Big Walnut Nature Preserve

Tall Timbers Trail

County: Putnam                      Size: 130 acres
Ownership: Nature Preserves - IDNR; The Nature Conservancy

Location and Access

Parking lot, trail. Take US 36 (Ernie Pyle Memorial Highway) west from Indianapolis to Bainbridge. From the traffic light (only one) in the middle of Bainbridge, turn right (north) onto N Washington St. Follow this road as it curves right (Co Rd 800 N), then left (Co Rd 250 E) to North Putnam High School. At the first gravel road north of the high school (Co Rd 950 N) turn right (east). Proceed just over 1.0 mi on this gravel road to a parking lot. A trail traverses the preserve. (cont.)

Description:

Tall Timbers Trail is a 1.9-mile hike through some of the Big Walnut System's most impressive woodlands. Dramatic ravines, several types of high quality forests with towering hardwoods, and the potential for uncommon and beautiful wildflowers such as the Indian cucumber root, the guyandotte beauty, showy orchis, and blue cohosh. Prepare for small stream crossings (wet feet).
