

Digging the Past

at the Falls of the Ohio State Park

September 13, 2014 9:30 AM to 4:00 PM

Do you like exploring the history of people and the planet?

Digging the Past is two special events in one!

Come explore archaeology and earth's history.

Hands-on Archaeology!

Archaeology

Atlatl -dart throwing

Grind corn with a mortar and pestle

Mock dig for artifacts

Make a clay pot

Learn how to use stone tools

Artifact identification (bring your unknowns)

Dig Geology!

Fresh mineral and fossil collecting piles

Guided hikes on fossil beds

Roving naturalists on fossil beds

Rock and fossil identification (bring your unknowns)

Explore Earth's tiniest fossils and crystals with a microscope

Arts & crafts with fossils, colored stones and beads for children

Pick up free brochures from many fossil parks across North America.

Sponsored by the Falls of the Ohio Archaeological Society and the Mineral and Fossil Interest Club

Contact - park@fallsoftheohio.org / 812-280-9970

