

Welcome to Versailles State Park

July 4th Holiday Weekend Nature Programs

Property Manager: Paul Sipples
Assistant Property Manager: Lucas Green
Interpretive Naturalist: Mitchell White

Thursday June 30th, 2011

4PM Conservation Day

Come join the Naturalist at the nature center on a hike through the trails picking up trash and going over other nature conservation

Friday July 1st, 2011

5PM Emerald Ash Borer

What is EAB? Why is it killing 8-12 million trees? Meet at Nature Center to find out!

9:30PM Are you a Night Owl?

Come join the naturalist at the old saddle barn on old fire tower road for the always popular and very fun Owl Prowl.

Saturday July 2nd, 2011. *Nature Center open 2-6pm and 7-9pm Today Free Admission to the park at 8

3pm Turtle time

Come to the Nature Center to learn about Indiana's turtles come see some up close and personal.

4pm Hoosier Quest

Does your family go to many of the Indiana state parks, or would want to go? Come find out some ways your kids could get badges from the Hoosier Quest.

8:30PM Emerald Ash Borer

Come watch an educational video and talk on EAB at Nature Center.

10pm Fireworks

Come to the lakeside and enjoy an explosive fireworks display! Bring blankets/chairs to sit in if you wish!

Sunday, July 3rd 2011

10am Tree Identification

If you have ever looked at a tree and wondered what kind it is meet at the Nature Center to learn how to identify Indiana Trees and take a short hike to put your new skills to the test!

1pm Critter Chow Time

Come to the Nature Center to watch the Naturalist and friends feed the Nature Center critters.

Monday, July 4th 2011 *Nature Center open 10am-2pm today

11am Fossil Hunt

Meet at the Nature Center to head out on a short hike to the waterside to search for fossils along the creek! All ages welcome. Shoes and clothes that can get wet are advised.