Course Description:

This college level course guides students on an in-depth visual journey where they will discover ways in which art has functioned as a tool used by rulers, patrons, and religions to shape the work we know today. Students will also discover ways that art communicates cultural norms, philosophies and values. In the end, students may become a more enlightened, educated, and globally literate citizen. This course is designed for students with a major focus on the Arts and the history of art.
