Course Description:

Through looking at literature from across time and the globe, AP Literature and Composition works to improve the student's ability to analyze literature and gain the tools to use analysis in other areas of study. As a College Board approved course, this course follows the requirements to, engage student in the careful reading and critical analysis of imaginative literature. Through the close reading of selected texts, students deepen their understanding of the ways writers use language to provide both meaning and pleasure for the readers. Students will consider a works structure, style, and themes, as well as such smaller-scale elements as the use of figurative language, imagery, symbolism, and tone. Students will also acquire the vocabulary and writing skills necessary for high level analysis and performance on the AP test. AP Literature and Composition 1 course focuses on Poetry, short stories, and two novels. Much of the study focuses on terms that student may be familiar with, but will look at works much more closely and develops a deeper understanding of how these devices work in literature.
