DOR's Annual Public Hearing set for May 19

INDIANAPOLIS – The Indiana Department of Revenue (DOR) is hosting its annual public hearing on May 19, 2026, at 9 a.m. ET in the Indiana Government Center South building, Conference Room D.

The public hearing allows stakeholders the opportunity to hear DOR's latest initiatives, while providing a forum for the agency to hear directly from the public regarding feedback on policies, processes, and procedures.

Interested customers and stakeholders may attend the hearing in-person or virtually.

To attend in-person (location):

Indiana Government Center South
Conference Room D
302 W. Washington St.
Indianapolis, IN 46204

To attend virtually:

The link to join virtually will be available May 19 at 9 a.m.: in.gov/dor/about/news-publications/public-hearings/

To provide comment:

Individuals who want to attend in-person and speak during the hearing should email their request to Bizoutreach@dor.IN.gov by May 15 to reserve a speaker slot.

Individuals attending in-person or virtually may submit comments to DOR prior to the meeting by emailing them to Bizoutreach@dor.IN.gov.
