Annual Public Hearing

DOR's annual public hearing is May 20, 2025, at 9 a.m. ET in Indiana Government Center South Conference Room A. Customers and stakeholders will have the opportunity to hear recent agency initiatives and provide feedback on policies, processes, and procedures. Attend in person or watch virtually.

Tax Scams Are Getting More Sophisticated

Be mindful of all types of bad actors who could attempt to steal your client's money. Many scammers try to portray themselves as tax agency representatives. If you or your client ever doubt the authenticity of a text, email, letter or phone call claiming to be from DOR or the IRS, contact the agency directly! Recently, text messages have become a popular avenue to fraudulently steal personal and banking information with a link that is designed to hack your phone. DOR's Tax Fraud webpage has tips on how to avoid and report scammers.

Most importantly, if you receive any type of communication that you believe to be suspicious, be sure to contact the agency directly. You can contact DOR via INTIME or the IRS at 800-829-1040.

Amending a Tax Return

As a general rule, you have three years to file an amended return. Reasons for filing an amended return may include reporting additional income, correcting your income or correcting your deductions and credits. Learn more about amended returns.
