2025 Annual Report

DOR's commitment to customer service, efficiency, and continuous improvement are foundations that keep us grounded as we administer Indiana tax laws fairly, securely, and efficiently. Highlights of the 2025 Fiscal Year Annual Report include:

- Received an overall customer satisfaction score of 93.5% based on 11,476 completed surveys
- Managed the 2025 IRS triennial audit to ensure that federal regulations are followed to safeguard Hoosier taxpayer information
- Continuous improvement in providing clear and concise external communications to customers
- MCS maintained its position as one of only two states to achieve the highest possible compliance rating with the Performance and Registration Information Systems Management (PRISM) program, which enhances the safety of Indiana's roads
- Recognized locally and nationally as a Top Workplace and leading administrator

State filing extension due Nov. 17

The Nov. 17 deadline for the extension of time to file is rapidly approaching. Taxpayers who were granted a federal extension of time to file (due Oct. 15), were automatically granted an extension of time to file with Indiana. Remember to file on time to avoid late filing penalties.
