SUBJECT: Indiana Design Manual Rewrite

REVISES: Indiana Design Manual Chapters 10, 11, and Sections 402-5.05, 402-5.06, and 402-6.01(03)

EFFECTIVE: Immediately

Indiana Design Manual Chapter 10, Utilities, and Chapter 11, Railroad Coordination, have been rewritten. These chapters now appear as Chapter 104, Utility Coordination, and Chapter 105, Railroad Coordination, respectively. Both versions are available for download at http://www.in.gov/indot/design_manual/design_manual_2013.htm . Questions regarding Utility and Railroad coordination should be directed to Kenny Franklin, Utility and Railroad Division Director at kfranklin@indot.in.gov .

Sections from Chapter 402, Structure Size and Type noted above have been revised to reflect the new Utility Coordination and Railroad Coordination chapter numbers and incorporate guidance on railroad grade separations.
