

COMBAT to Career

You're Invited to the Old National Annual Combat to Career Workshop

Your military service has made you a leader, disciplined team member and a strategic thinker. We invite all military personnel, both individuals who currently serve in the United States Military and Veterans, to the Combat to Career Workshop. If you have an interest in the financial industry, Combat to Career will give you the opportunity to learn about retail/commercial banking, risk management, marketing, insurance and much more.

Department tours • Mock interviews • Resume reviewing • Networking • Career opportunities
