

MEDICAL AND CRIMINAL ASPECTS OF STRANGULATION AND TRIAL PREPARATION

March 18, 2026

8:30 AM-5:30 PM

Good Samaritan Hospital

Hedde Center

502 South 7th Street Vincennes

This is a full-day course that provides an in-dept look at both the medical and criminal aspects of strangulation. Participants will learn how to recognize clinical signs and document findings. 6.5 hours of Continuing Education will be available for attorneys, nursing, law enforcement, and other professionals. Light breakfast and lunch will be provided. Cost: $60