ADMINISTRATIVE ACTIONS, NOTES, COMMENTS

RACE 2: #9 EPICAL blew the turn for home and was eased through the stretch.

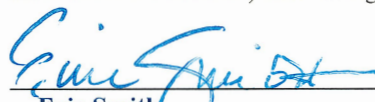

RACE 3: Jockey Amir Mendoza was warned about riding all the way through the wire.

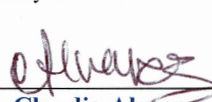

RACE 4: Inquiry – to review action at the top of the stretch between #4, #5, and #10. After reviewing video replay, the Stewards concluded that the contact was insufficient to warrant a change in order. No action taken.

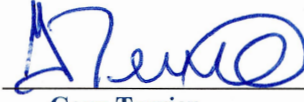

RACE 6: Inquiry – to review contact between #1 and #4 in deep stretch. After reviewing video replay, the Stewards determined the incident was mutual and no change was ordered.

RACE 9: Jockey objections – claim of foul from #5 (Hannah Leahey) against #9 (Joseph Ramos) alleging interference as they approached the wire. The Stewards declined to make a change because the incident happened so close to the finish that it likely did not affect the placings; claim of foul from #8 (Andres Ulloa) against #9 and #7 alleging interference at the start. Stewards noted that Ulloa was pinched between horses and lost ground, but given that it happened at the start of a 1-1/16 mile race, there was insufficient evidence that it affected the placings. Both claims were disallowed.

RACE 12: Improper use of the riding crop – jockey G. A. O'Neal was fined for using the riding crop in a prohibited manner (striking the horse above the shoulder) after having been previously warned about doing so.
