

THE INDIANA QUARTER HORSE BREED DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Why do you need
HOOSIER HORSEPOWER?

"We appreciate the Indiana program for their promotion of Quarter Horse racing and their stance to assure the racing is done safely and fairly for all involved—horses, riders and owners."

WHY INDIANA?

The Indiana Quarter Horse Breed Development Program provides incentives and awards to three important elements of the Indiana Quarter Horse industry: owners, breeders and stallion owners. These incentives and awards promote investment of capital into the Indiana economy (via Quarter Horse breeding, racing and related agri-business) and maximize the positive impact to the state's economy. The incentives reward risk, and the awards reward success on the racetrack through winning.

The program was established in November 1999, by the Indiana Horse Racing Commission (IHRC), with the first breed development races occurring in the fall of 2000. The original program, and subsequent modifications, are the result of input from Indiana owners, breeders and trainers, as well as analyzing successful state-bred programs in the United States and Canada.

To register your Indiana bred race-horse, you must submit a completed official application to the Indiana Horse Racing Commission. Because registration dates and rules vary for foals, stallions and mares, read the following guidelines and check our website for any updates. Registrations may be made by mail, fax or online. Applications are available at <http://in.gov/hrc/qh.htm>

- ✓ Mare and foal must remain in Indiana for 30 days after foaling.*

Registration must be filed for each pregnancy.

Foals

Submit a completed application within 12 months of the horse's foaling date, to avoid the following late fees:

| 12 months + 1 day to December 31 of | |
| yearling year | $200 |
| 2-year-old year | $400 |

Stallions

Submit a completed application on or before November 1 of each year prior to breeding season. Each registered stallion must remain in Indiana for the entire breeding season (February 1 through July 1).

New stallions arriving late cannot have covered any mares in another state during the same year.

How are the Funds Generated?

The Quarter Horse Breed Development Fund receives 30% of the revenue generated from slot machines which is allocated for Quarter Horse racing. In addition, the fund also receives a portion of all breakages (the difference in the rounding off of pari-mutuel payoffs) and outs (uncashed tickets) from the pari-mutuel industry.

Indiana Grand

Originally named Indiana Downs, the premiere flat racing track in Indiana was established in 2002, prior to the approval of slot machines. Originally this track was designed as an all-breed track and raced Standardbreds, Thoroughbreds and Quarter Horses up until 2013. The first flat racing meet, which was 30 racing days, was held in December 2002. Upon completion of the casino in 2013, Centaur Gaming purchased Indiana Downs and renamed it Indiana Grand Racing & Casino. It is the state's only licensed pari-mutuel racing venue for Quarter Horses. Live racing is offered seven months out of the year at the Shelbyville facility that features a 1-mile dirt track and 7-furlong turf course.
