To Tomorrow's Leaders!

Welcome to the 14th Annual NOBLE Youth Leadership Conference. Indianapolis is proud to host this outstanding conference which will include discussions on law enforcement issues and how the youth and community can get involved in keeping our cities safe. As the Chief of Police of this great City I am proud to be a part of this conference.

This is an important time for you, a time to cultivate ideas, life choices and future career pathing. The NOBLE conference will encourage you through education and workshops to acquire that promising and sustaining future you want. This is your time, your challenge to stand up and become the future ambassadors and leaders of our great city.

The Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department is on board with the mission of NOBLE and in fact has initiated positive change for the young people in our communities. IMPD police officers reach out to our community's children through many programs. We visit your classrooms with programs such as, Healthy Reasons to Say No to Drugs, Juvenile Jeopardy, and personal safety programs. We also provide after-school activities, sports programs, and individual mentoring programs. As an added attraction to this event, IMPD staff will provide tours to special events, such as a tour of the NCAA Hall of Champions, an Indiana Fever game, and a visit to the University of Indianapolis campus.

Attending this NOBLE conference will add to the possibilities of a brighter future for you. We hope after attending the NOBLE conference you will be encouraged to make that difference and join us in our challenge to make Indy a better, safer city in which you, as an adult, will want to live and prosper.

On behalf of the men and women of IMPD I want to express my sincere appreciation and gratitude to the local and national chapters of NOBLE for their unwavering commitment to this endeavor. We stand ready to assist and accomplish in the concepts that will meld the visions of law enforcement, community and youth.

Yours truly,
