

Fourth Grade Student Essay Competition

Hoosier Bicentennial Celebrations!

How do you plan on celebrating the Bicentennial of Indiana? Write an essay and you could be honored at a Statehood Day celebration!

The Indiana State House Tour Office in conjunction with the Indiana Center for the Book and the Indiana State Library is hosting an essay competition to commemorate Indiana Statehood Day 2015, a celebration of Indiana's 199th birthday and the kick-off celebration for our 200th birthday! This year's theme is Hoosier Bicentennial Celebrations! Winners of the Hoosier Bicentennial Celebration essay contest will be honored at the Statehood Day Celebration at one of four participating locations on Friday, December 11, 2015.

Hoosier Bicentennial Celebrations essay contest rules:

- The competition is open to any Indiana fourth grade public, private or homeschooled student in the 2015-2016 school year.
- Essays must range from 100 to 300 words, handwritten or typed.
- Essays should be submitted on the front of one page whenever possible. No identifying information should be on the front of the entry. Identifying information including the student's name, teacher's name, school's name, address, telephone number, and a valid email address for the teacher or individual, must be included. Entries without this information will be deemed ineligible. Entries are accepted from schools or individuals.
- Essays should be reflective of the theme and convey clear thoughts about Hoosier Bicentennial Celebrations. The judges will be accepting a broad interpretation of the theme. Indiana is about to turn 200. How will you celebrate the Bicentennial?
- Essays must be postmarked by Friday, October 23, 2015.

We are not accepting electronic submissions. Essays should be mailed to:

Indiana Center for the Book
Suzanne Walker
140 N. Senate Ave
Indianapolis, IN 46204

- A panel of judges will choose first, second, third, and fourth place winners.

The winners, along with their class, will be invited to read his or her essays at one of the four participating locations on December 11th for Indiana's 199th Statehood Day.

