

INDIANA STATE CAPITOL TOURS

On behalf of the Department of Administration we look forward to your visit to the State Capitol Building!

You can expect to enjoy a beautiful building, see your government at work, learn something about the history of Indiana, and walk through halls and rooms that have housed our leaders for over a hundred years. It is our intent that you to have an enjoyable and informative visit.

Sincerely,

The Indiana State Capitol Tour Office Staff

PARKING

- Buses may be parked at the Indianapolis Zoo for a fee of $10.00. It is located on Washington Street one mile west of downtown. Buses must be locked if the driver leaves the vehicle.
- BUSES MAY NOT REMAIN PARKED ON ROBERT ORR PLAZA OR SENATE AVE.
- Cars may be parked at metered spaces and/or in area garages. Metered time is monitored and cars will be ticketed and towed when in violation.
- The ONLY public access to the building is the west, lower doors OR the east doors (not open on the weekend) at the top of the steps. Be prepared to go through metal detectors and to have bags, backpacks and purses x-rayed.
- Handicap spaces are marked along Senate Avenue, Robert Orr Plaza and
- Ohio Street. The lower Senate Avenue doors provides the only handicap access to the building. Turn right or left inside the vestibule doors and you will find elevators around the corners. We meet visitors on the second floor in the Rotunda.
- For a detailed Downtown pocket map call 317-237-2222.

CAFETERIA INFORMATION

Indiana Government Center campus has two cafeterias operated by Taher, Inc. – the North Cafeteria (Indiana Government Center North) and the South Cafeteria (Indiana Government Center South). The cafeterias are in the Lower Level (LL) of each building.

The South Cafeteria will reserve space for a group if box lunches are ordered in advance. The catering number is (317) 233-4354. Children are welcome to bring their own sack lunches into the cafeteria. Military Park is close and is suitable for a picnic in nice weather and the Canal Walk is right outside the Government Center North building. Picnics on the Statehouse grounds are prohibited.
