PROJECT OVERVIEW

Located on a mature and historic site at 75th Street and College Avenue in Indianapolis, Indiana, the Co-Location Campus promotes a one-campus mentality for students from both the Indiana School for the Deaf & Indiana School for the Blind and Visually Impaired while maintaining and respecting their two unique and historic identities.

Prequalification and bidding efforts will be broken into unique design releases to align with design document deliverables and construction needs. All first-tier bidders must be prequalified with Turner to receive documents.
