Ronald J. Miller, Jr. Named Chief Financial Officer of Indiana Department of Correction

Brings extensive private sector experience to Department

INDIANAPOLIS (August 10, 2010) - The Indiana Department of Correction (IDOC) has hired Ronald J. Miller, Jr. as Chief Financial Officer. He will be responsible for leading all financial and accounting functions of the Department.

IDOC Commissioner Edwin G. Buss stated, "Ronald brings a great deal of knowledge and experience to this position. I am confident he will serve the Department well as our Chief Financial Officer. We are glad to have him on our executive team and look forward to working with him in his new capacity."

Miller, 48, graduated in 1984 from Manchester College with a Bachelor's degree in Accounting, and earned a Master of Business Administration degree from Indiana University's Kelley School of Business in 2008. He is a CPA licensed in the State of Indiana.

For the past year Mr. Miller has served as the CFO of the Department of Waterworks for the City of Indianapolis. He has over 25 years of private sector experience in both financial and operational management in the foodservice, manufacturing, and construction industries including eight years as Vice President of Crystal Food Services.

He resides in Indianapolis with his wife Darlene, and college student sons Josh and Adam.
