May Leadership Talking Points

What do I need to know this month?

- Everything we do at IDOC is in pursuit of helping to transform lives from the inside out. Project DELTA will help us continue fulfilling that mission. With greater access to information and tools in a central location, DELTA will empower our people by providing them with the resources they need to work more efficiently. Below is key information that you need to know:

Moving Forward with DELTA: DELTA continues to garner input from every facility and every area of our organization throughout its development. From Parole to Case Management to Intake, etc., working sessions are being conducted to help ensure DELTA will truly help our people spend less time jumping from system to system and more time serving our communities and offenders.

IDOC Testers Help with System Progress: We have just concluded sprint 18 of 29. Testers help move progress forward by reviewing processes in the DELTA system and testing them to ensure system functionality at go-live.

Change Agents are Hard at Work: Acting as a liaison between the project team and facilities, these individuals bring the most up to date information to our people. Please support them by sharing their names with your staff and help them cascade information about DELTA to your facility / parole district where needed.

Training is Coming: Specifics around training will be shared soon. Please prepare to accommodate training schedules for staff members that will serve as instructors (late summer / early fall) as well as all of your staff in the late Fall. Sessions will be led by IDOC staff at 6 different locations (in addition to parole districts).

What actions can I take?

- Support your Change Agents
  - Socialize their names with your staff
  - Support communication sharing where applicable
  - Ask them questions and share questions from staff with them
- Support your Testers
- Be a champion for training
- Help inform staff around Project DELTA
