I serve as a Special State Appointee to the ICJI Board of Trustees. The Board oversees approval of ICJI grant funding. As a member of the judiciary, I am exempt from the code of ethics for Indiana's executive branch employees and special appointees. However, I wish to avoid the appearance of an impropriety by disclosing my relationship(s) with the following entities:

Describe the screen established by your ethics officer: (Attach additional pages as needed.)

Judge Dolehanty will abstain from voting on grant funding for the identified entities above, if they apply to ICJI during his service to the Board of Trustees. This will be announced and notated on the during the meeting for record keeping purposes. If Judge Dolehanty becomes involved with any other entity that may seek ICJI funding, this disclosure will be updated to include. This disclosure is meant to serve as a standing disclosure for the identified entities during his service to ICJI Board of Trustees.

To Huntsinger, Douglas (CJI) <DoHuntsinger@cji.IN.gov>
Cc Dolehanty, Darrin <darrin.dolehanty@trialjudges.in.gov>

Executive Director Huntsinger,

Please let this email serve as notification of a potential/standing conflict for Judge Dolehanty. We are filing a disclosure with the Inspector General and this notification is a requirement for that process. Judge Dolehanty will refrain from voting for funding related to the courts as he is an employee of the judiciary. Thank you.
