Name of Donor: Strada Education Foundation

Donor's Address: 10 W Market St #1100, Indianapolis, IN 46204

Nature of Business Relationship with Agency: The Indiana Commission for Higher Education is a current grant recipient of the Strada Education Foundation. The current grant agreement's ($400,000) purpose is for the Commission to study dual credit and dual enrollment pathways for Indiana K-12 students that lead to strong outcomes.

State Why Acceptance is in the Public Interest: The current grant agreement is unrelated to the education-to-workforce outcomes initiatives of the Strada Education Foundation. Through this event, Indiana is able to gain unparalleled insight into how other states leverage employment and wage data to assess Indiana's college and university return on investment for Hoosier families and Hoosier tax dollars.
