State Why Acceptance is in the Public Interest:

ICRC has worked with AAA for several years as a sponsor of Asian Fest, and members of AAA routinely attend and participate in ICRC events at every level. AAA is an organization that has exhibited a high level of commitment to diversity.

ICRC is tasked with studying the problems of discrimination in the areas of education, employment, access to public accommodation, and fair housing opportunities when based on race, religion, color, sex, handicap, national origin, or ancestry (IC 22-9-1-6). Further, the ICRC is also tasked with fostering through community efforts, or otherwise, good will among the groups and elements of the population of the state. In addition, AAA will promote ICRC's mission through its social media formats and marketing initiatives. ICRC enforces the Indiana civil rights laws and provides education and services to the public to ensure equal opportunity for all Hoosiers and visitors to the State of Indiana. ICRC serves as an important societal influence to eradicate illegal discrimination in Indiana.
