Agency Name: Indiana State Police

FILED

Name and Title of Recipient(s):

SEP 19 2025

1. Anthony M. Scott, Superintendent

INDIANA STATE
ETHICS COMMISSION

Brief Description:

All travel, hotel and per diem expenses to facilitate the attendance of qualified attendees (Superintendent Scott) will be covered through the MADD and NHTSA Cooperative Agreement. The approximate value is $1,159.51.

Date of Receipt:

November 17 – 19, 2025

Donor:

Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) / National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA)

Donor's Address:

MADD – 511 E. John Carpenter Freeway, Suite 200, Irving, Texas 75062

Nature of Business:

MADD is hosting a summit, funded through a cooperative agreement with NHTSA, focused on advancing data-informed strategies to strengthen impaired driving enforcement nationwide. Attendance at this event is by invitation only. While the Indiana State Police does not currently have a business relationship with the MADD organization, Superintendent Scott's attendance will serve to promote information sharing and partnership in developing strategies in enforcement, training, and policies related to detection and ultimately the preventable consequences associated with driving under the influence.

State Why Acceptance is Important:

With Superintendent Scott's attendance at this event, the Indiana State Police will gain information focusing on identifying new and promising data informed strategies to enhance impaired driving enforcement. Additionally, MADD will discuss how best to support law enforcement leadership to strengthen impaired driving enforcement efforts and save lives.
