

ORDER 2026-084
AN ORDER DENYING THE NATIONAL COLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION'S REQUEST TO PROHIBIT ALL INDIVIDUAL PLAYER PROPOSITION BETTING ON COLLEGE ATHLETES

In accordance with and subject to Ind. Code art. 4-33, Ind. Code art. 4-35, Ind. Code art. 4-38 and 68 Ind. Admin. Code § 27, the Indiana Gaming Commission ("Commission") has the authority to approve or deny events for sports wagering within the State of Indiana. Pursuant to Ind. Code § 4-38-9-4(b), if a sports wagering body requests the Commission to prohibit making wagers of a particular type, the Commission shall grant the request upon a demonstration of good cause from the sports wagering body. "Good Cause" includes, but is not limited to, information provided by a sports governing body that indicates a credible threat to the integrity of sports wagering that is beyond the control of the sports governing body to preemptively remedy or mitigate. 68 IAC 27-1-2(10).

On March 3, 2026 the National Collegiate Athletic Association's ("NCAA") submitted a request to the Commission to prohibit all individual player proposition bet on college athletes. In support the NCAA has provided information about online and in-person harassment college athletes have faced related to sports wagering and wagering prohibitions from other jurisdictions. The Commission has determined that the matter is better addressed by the legislature and the good cause burden was not met.

The Commission hereby DENIES the request of the NCAA to prohibit all individual player proposition betting on college athletes.

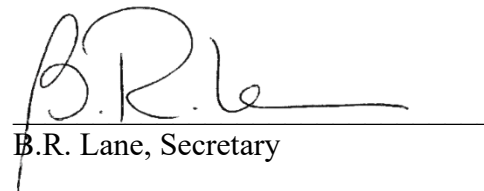

Pursuant to Ind. Code §4-21.5-3-5 this order is effective fifteen days after the order is served.

IT IS SO ORDERED THIS 24TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 2026.
