Re: Proposed Rulemaking for the Federal Home Loan Bank AHP Program

On March 14, 2018 the Federal Housing Finance Agency published a proposed rule in the Federal Register. The purpose of this rule is to amend the regulations for the Affordable Housing Program (AHP) administered through the Federal Home Loan Banks.

The Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis has asked IHCDA to assist with disseminating information about the proposed rule and to encourage the submission of public comments. Public comments are due by May 14, 2018 and should be submitted following the instructions in the Federal Register.

In addition, the Federal Housing Finance Agency is hosting an informational webinar at 2:00 p.m. Eastern Time on March 27, 2018 to explain the proposed rule. The webinar is free but registration is required.

IHCDA encourages its development partners to review the proposed rule and submit public comments by the May 14, 2018 deadline.
