Re: Introductory Webinar: “Is the Indiana Supportive Housing Institute Right for Your Organization?”

Join CSH and IHCDA for this two-and-a-half-hour introductory webinar to supportive housing and the Indiana Supportive Housing Institute (“the Institute”).

Attendees will learn:

- What is supportive housing?
- What is the housing first model?
- What is harm reduction?
- What is eviction prevention?
- Roles in supportive housing – including the role of developers, owners, property management, and supportive service providers
- Benefits and expectations of participating in the Institute

This session is intended for organizations that have not previously attended the Institute but are interested in doing so to develop supportive housing.

The webinar will be held from 1:00 – 3:30 Eastern Time on Friday, August 12, 2022, at no cost to participants. Click here to register. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.
